

Introducing Anthony Gonzalez!

Anthony Gonzalez isn't your ordinary sales leader; he's an entrepreneurial force with a knack for driving business success. As the Co-founder and Chief Revenue Officer of Izinga, Anthony orchestrates strategies that transform potential into reality. When he's not working, you'll find him in San Francisco, hanging out with his wife, their 3-year-old daughter, and probably at a gym lifting or boxing.

Beyond his professional endeavors, Anthony plays a pivotal role as a Board of Trustees member at Eleven. "I'm truly passionate about it! It's all about opening doors and providing life-changing experiences for gifted students from underprivileged backgrounds," Anthony affirms. "

In 2022, Anthony played a pivotal role in the inception of Izinga, an agency that provides small businesses with offshore talent and enables them to unlock their full potential. The core focus lies in identifying areas for growth, crafting innovative systems, and harnessing top-tier global talent. But that's not all! Alongside his wife, he also co-founded Shivr Event Production, a company that transforms events into unforgettable experiences.

While making waves in his industry, Anthony dedicated his expertise to the Board of Directors at Bay Area Mobility Management (BAMM), contributing to the global mobility and relocation industry.

Some of Anthony's biggest WINS include a $100M global housing program contract for a Fortune 50 social media company and managing $150MM in yearly revenue at Synergy Global Housing.

Above and beyond his role as a business leader, Anthony is a trailblazer who makes a lasting impact wherever he ventures. With his deep understanding of the business landscape and unwavering determination, he serves as a charismatic guide for those seeking to leave their mark in the world of business.

